

Philosophy

Created with input from Children, Families, Educators, Community, Management and Coordination Unit Staff

Vision

The rights and best interests of the child are at the forefront of all practice.

Purpose

Commitment to providing a high-quality early childhood service to the benefit of all stakeholders including children, families, educators, staff and the community.

We achieve this by:

- Placing the rights and best interests of the child first, in all instances
- Respecting and supporting families as their child's first and most important teacher
- Management, coordination unit staff and educators are dedicated to quality outcomes for all children
- Viewing children as successful, competent and capable learners who are given opportunities to construct their own understandings, contribute to the learning of others, and participate in decisions that affect them
- Embedding equity, inclusion and diversity in all practice
- Providing all children with the opportunity to succeed, with their diverse circumstances, cultural backgrounds and abilities respected and valued

Values

At Ausscot Family Day Care, we value inclusive practices, ethical decision making, and respectful relationships built on honest and open communication.

We achieve this by our commitment to:

- Aspiring to support families by providing choices in their search for quality childcare, in a unique and caring environment that meets their expectations and needs
- Providing a service that is flexible, dynamic and responsive to the needs of the children, families, educators, community, management and coordination unit staff
- Advocating for children, families, educators and coordination unit staff
- Providing up to date, progressive training and support to educators and coordination unit staff, that reflects a commitment to the guiding principles of the National Quality Framework, National Law and the Approved Learning Frameworks
- Acknowledging, respecting and valuing Australia's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and the other cultures represented within our community
- Supporting children to become environmentally responsible

Ausscot Family Day Care
Coordination Unit : 81 Denison Street
TAMWORTH NSW 2340